

EMPIRE STATE COLLEGE

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Accounting Certification Disclaimer

1. I understand that the Empire State College offers a registered undergraduate Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting [124-credits], which is not sufficient to meet the total educational credit requirement [150-credits] for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license.
2. I understand that Empire State College offers undergraduate degrees in Business, Management and Economics (BME) with concentration titles that may contain “Accounting” in them [124-credits], which is not sufficient to meet the total educational credit requirement [150-credits] for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license.
3. I also understand that there are other non-educational requirements that must be met in order to become licensed in New York State as a CPA, and that these requirements cannot be met through college coursework.
4. I understand that some prior learning assessment topics (such as standardized examinations, individualized prior learning assessment) may not be acceptable to meet the New York state CPA licensure requirement.
5. I understand that the New York State Education Department is the sole source of accurate information concerning assessment of an individual’s credentials and those requirements that he or she must meet to be certified individually. I am aware that the most recent information regarding CPA licensure requirements is available at <http://www.op.nysed.gov/prof/cpa/>.
